

FREE ADMISSION TO ALL EVENTS.

Presented by the Pittsburgh Cultural Trust Department of Education and Community Engagement.

Visit pgharts.org or call 412.456.6666 for more info.

lead sponsor:  FIRST Commonwealth

other sponsors:

Photos by Jason Cohn.

This Gallery Crawl is a special activity of the Allegheny Regional Asset District's free RADical Days. Visit radworkshere.org for more information.

GALLERY CRAWL

in the Cultural District
With 23 participating venues, cutting-edge art exhibitions, live bands, dance, DJs and more!

Friday, October 3
5:30 – 9pm

803 Liberty Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15222

GALLERY CRAWL

in the Cultural District

Friday, October 3
5:30–9pm

FREE ADMISSION TO ALL EVENTS!

1. Wood Street Galleries

601 Wood Street
ZEE[RANGE]: Immersive environments by Kurt Hentschlagler.

2. SPACE

812 Liberty Avenue
Make, Shift, Home: Co-curated by Mario Marzan and Sharmila Venkatasubban. Artists include Diana Behl, Patricia Fernandez, Ivelisse Jimenez, Mario Marzan, Jeff Mueller, Roxana Perez-Mendez, Blithe Riley, David Tinapple and Mike Wille. Music by DJ Stephan.

Gallery Crawl Infodesk: Stop by to receive special news, offers, and to register to win tickets for Pittsburgh International Festival of Firsts (pifof.org), First Night and more!

3. PA Culinary Institute

808 Liberty Avenue
Culinary Sculptures: Various sugar and tallow sculpture pieces created by PCI faculty. Hot food and beverages prepared by PCI students available for $1.

4. Harris Theater

809 Liberty Avenue
Gallery Crawl Short Films: Presented by Pittsburgh Filmmakers.

5. 820 Liberty

820 Liberty Avenue
American Dread: An exhibit of political and humor cartoons by Gary Huck, featuring a voter's guide to anxiety about the upcoming election.

Also previews of the Black Sheep Puppet Festival (www.blacksheepuppet.com) including the Apathetic Anarchists!

6. Liberty Lofts

905 Liberty Avenue
Downtown Living Exposed: Local photographers' interpretations of Downtown Living. Presented by the Pittsburgh Downtown Partnership.

7. August Wilson Center for African American Culture

Future Home on Liberty Avenue
SPOTLIGHT on the August Wilson Center: See an interactive presentation of the Center before it opens next year. Get text messages about the Center's spaces and programming (fees may apply).

8. 937 Liberty Avenue

Bricolage Space—1st Floor
Emerging Artists of Pittsburgh Filmmakers: "THROUGH" by Lori Cardille, installation with photos by Barbara Hall.

ArtUp Presents—3rd Floor:
The People's History Project: Political cartoonist Mike Konopacki converts Howard Zinn's written history into a graphic one. Puppets and traveling show of Zinn's work by Amy Trompetter (and the Wobbly Bucket Brigade). Co-presented by the Black Sheep Puppet Festival.

9. Salon Christine

954 Penn Avenue
Artwork by Sarah Zeffiro
Music by DJ Kelli Burns.

10. Trombino Piano Gallerie

942 Penn Avenue
Steinway Young Artists play while surrounded by art from international artists. Presented by Renaissance Art Gallery.

11. Northside Urban Pathways Gallery

914 Penn Avenue
Sounds of Steel band along with the work of local crafters.

12. Phillip Injeian Violin Shop

905 Penn Avenue
The Making of a Violin: A vacation and construction of a violin. Live concert at 7pm.

13. CAPA Gallery

111 Ninth Street
DNA: Dennis-Nick-Art: Dennis and Nick Childers' father-son exhibition of video, sound, sculpture, painting and installations.

14. Future Tenant

819 Penn Avenue
The Ties that Bind: A collaborative, multimedia group show that explores the expansive, sometimes random and ever-fragile nature of our connections to one another. Co-curated by Karin Coyne and Tina Rojas.

15. MCG@800 Penn

800 Penn Avenue
HMH@MCG: Youth summer students' cast iron works and documentation of their work-shop with Pittsburgh's Hot Metal Happening.

16. 709 Penn Gallery

709 Penn Avenue
Dreams Inside Reality: Leslie Anslay's images of the Hill District's hopes to regain its identity while facing obstacles towards change.

17. 707 Penn Gallery

707 Penn Avenue
Wild Man's World: Woodblock prints and drawings by Paul Roden and Valerie Lueth of Tugboat Printshop.

18. 121 Seventh Street

121 Seventh Street, Sixth Floor Loft
A Room with a View: The Design Pittsburgh 2008 Exhibit: AIA Pittsburgh celebrates the places and the people who build and design Pittsburgh! Music by The Metropolitans.

19. Katz Plaza

Seventh Street & Penn Avenue
Live Dance by The Pillow Project: Site-specific dance improv using live percussion instruments and the architectural features of Katz Plaza. Run time: 15 minutes, performed every 45 minutes.
Handmade Arcade: The organizers of Pittsburgh's annual fair bring you Project Craft.
First Commonwealth Hospitality Spot: Stop by for complimentary Starbucks and basket giveaways.

20. Backstage Bar

655 Penn Avenue
Live music by Jason Kendall (5:30–9pm) and Boilermaker Jazz Band (9pm–midnight)

21. Upstairs@Palazzo

144 Sixth Street, 2nd Floor NOT UNIVERSALLY ACCESSIBLE
Julie Pfirsch with paintings on stills and Rachel Sager with "Mosaics."

22. Verve Wellness

142 Sixth Street, 3rd Floor
Masked/Unmasked: The Photography of Neil Richmond: Presenting the body as art.
Drum Circle: Learn basic hand-drumming techniques. Lift your mood and energize your spirit. Drums provided or bring your own.

23. Arthur Murray Dance Studio

136 Sixth Street NOT UNIVERSALLY ACCESSIBLE
Free Dance Lessons: Swing at 7pm, Salsa at 7:30pm, Rumba at 8pm, Merengue/general dancing at 8:30pm. Dance demos by our staff.

SAVE THE DATE

FIRST NIGHT® PITTSBURGH 2009
Wednesday, December 31st, 6pm – midnight
Don't miss Pittsburgh's largest New Years Eve Party with live music, dance, fireworks and FUN in the Cultural District!

Text "CRAWL" to SMASH (76274) to receive special exclusive offers and more!

FREE BIKE PARKING in designated garages!

All locations are universally accessible unless otherwise noted.

All information and locations are subject to change. Visit pgharts.org for updated information.